FOLLOWING CONVICTION

DEATH OF PROMOTER WHITAKER
WRIGHT OCCURS SUDDENLY IN LONDON.

EVIDENCE FAVORS SUICIDE

FINANCIER HAD BEEN SENTENCED TO SEVEN YEARS OF PENAL SERVITUDE.

London, Jan. 27.—At 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Whitaker Wright was sentenced to seven years penal servitude. At 4 o'clock he lay dead on the floor of a small room in the law courts. Whether he took his own life by poison or whether death in its natural course robbed the law of its fulfillment, will not be known until a post mortem examination is held; the indications, however, point to poisoning.

The career of this man, who was known on three continents for his stupendous financial operations, closed in a startling tragedy. Even in his life which, with his rise from poverty to enormous wealth, was full of dramatic incidents, there was nothing that could compare with the manner of his death. All London is thrilled with the news of it. No such human tragedy has been enacted in England for many a year.

Until nearly 8 o'clock at night the body of the man who formerly had controlled many of the world's markets and who had been courted by royalty remained upon the floor of the room where he fell, for, as a convicted felon, Wright's person had become the property of the crown.

The home office finally gave permission for its removal and the body was given over to the jurisdiction of the coroner. It now lies at Westminster mortuary, where almost all the corpses taken from the Thames are laid out. The inquest probably will be held on Thursday.

Mrs. Wright, the dead man's wife, is an American. She now lies ill at the magnificent country home which Wright had in Surrey. Dispatches from there say with a certain ingenious pathos:

News Caused Much Sorrow.

"The news of Whitaker Wright's death has caused much sorrow. He was well known here for his acts of generosity and it was generally believed that he would be acquitted and return home again."

The feeling that Justice Bigham's conduct of the case was not very judicial appears to grow in legal circles of London, and the sentence imposed upon Wright would have in itself furnished England with an unexpected sensation.

Until counsel commenced pleading, the actual trial of Whitaker Wright scarcely aroused that keen public interest which was exhibited when Wright was in the United States or when parliament decided he did not come within the pale of law-breakers.

When Messrs. Isaacs and Walton started to make their appeal to the jury the people woke up to the gravity of the issues concerned. Even the government was involved, for it had taken the stand that Wright could not be prosecuted. Furthermore, it was an open secret that many great and even royal names were indirectly involved in the proceedings. Friends of Wright had said that if driven into a corner he would tell who had profited by his transactions. Suspense reigned in many quarters while counsel for the defense made their appeal, but when the appeal was finished those involved breathed easier and public curiosity remained unsatisfied.

The case against Wright had been on trial twelve days and the accused took little interest in the proceedings, and confidently looked for acquittal.

Justice Bigham summed up the evidence before a crowded courtroom and emphasized the points against Wright, who appeared interested for the first time, but who remained confident of acquittal while the jury deliberated for an hour. When the jury returned and the foreman said "guilty," Wright did not even flinch. His counsel vainly pleaded for mercy.

Given Extreme Penalty.

Justice Bigham, in passing sentence, said he could see nothing to excuse the crime of which Wright had been convicted and he could not conceive a worse case. He must, therefore, allot the most severe punishment the law permits—penal servitude for seven years.

The crowd in court gasped in surprise. Wright was almost the only person present who appeared to be unmoved. Then, turning to the reporters in the room, rather than to the judge, he cried out in a firm voice:

"All that I can say is that I am as innocent of any intention to deceive as any one in this court."

Wright was led out of court, looking in perfect health, to the consultation room to say farewell to his solicitors. For some minutes he discussed his family and financial affairs. He expressed amazement at the verdict and at the sentence, but appeared resigned.

Suddenly Wright fell backward, as if he had fainted. The officer who was waiting to take him to Brixton prison ran to King's College hospital, which is near by, for a doctor. In the meanwhile the unconscious man was propped up on two chairs. The doctor came quickly. His first thought was that Wright had fallen in an ordinary apoplectic fit, but it was noticed that his heart began gradually to give out and before another doctor could arrive Whitaker Wright, within one hour of the time he had been sentenced, was dead.

An examination of the body made at a late hour last night points strongly to the fact that death was due to poison.

Wright was accused of fraud.

GAIN BRIEF VICTORY.

Bears Force Down Price of Wheat at Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—The wheat pit on board of trade was the scene of successive bear triumph and discomfiture Tuesday. Within a period of ten minutes the price of wheat for May delivery fell 2½¢ a bushel, a low which was more than recovered, the closing quotation for the day showing a net gain of ¼¢ as compared with Monday night's closing. For a time A. J. Valentine, president of the Armour Grain company, and manager of J. Ogden Armour's interests on the board of trade, was in the pit personally buying all the May wheat offered and then the owner of wheat for that month's delivery seemingly could have disposed of any quantity of it at 90½¢. After Valentine had left the pit, the bears, confident in his absence, made a successful raid into the Armour domains and May wheat was worth 87½¢. Such at least is one interpretation put upon the enigmatical operations conducted in the pit through the representatives of various commission houses. Other gossip is to the effect that the wholesale selling was really for the Armour account.

FIFTEEN MINERS KILLED.

Cage Drops Down Shaft of Independence Mine.

Victor, Colo., Jan. 27.—Fifteen men were killed in an accident at Stratton's Independence mine located near the center of this city. One other was severely injured. The dead are: W. R. Frazier, John Sebeck, Joe Setherum, Edward Twigg, L. A. Wagoner, H. A. Yeoman, Edward Smith, Joe Ovary, H. F. Brown, W. B. Collins, J. L. Steward, Frank Cochran, L. P. Jackson, Harry Cogan, C. C. Statton.

In the main shaft sixteen men were being hoisted in a cage from the sixth, seventh and eighth levels. When the cage reached the surface the engineer, for some unexplained reason, was unable to stop the engine and the cage, with its load of human freight, was drawn up into the gallow's frame, where it became lodged temporarily. The strain on the cable finally caused it to part and the cage, released, shot down the shaft with terrific speed. Two of the occupants, L. P. Jackson and James Bullbek, had become entangled in the timber rods near the top of the gallow's frame. Jackson was crushed to death by the sheave wheel falling upon him, while Bullbek had a marvelous escape from death but received painful injuries and was rescued from his perilous position. The other fourteen men were hurled to death down the 1,500-foot shaft.

Accomplishes Very Little.

Bedford, Ind., Jan. 27.—Very little has been accomplished by the committee on public safety toward the apprehension of the murderer of Miss Schafer. The public schools of Bedford opened Tuesday for the first time since the tragedy. The funeral of Miss Schafer was held at Elkhart Tuesday and a number of people from here were in attendance.

Several Firemen Injured.

Baltimore, Jan. 2.—Fire of unknown origin caused a damage of about $100,000 to the New York clothing store. Several firemen, including District Chief Emerich, were injured by glass.

JAPAN INTIMATES THAT SHE IS

PEOPLE IN FAVOR OF WAR

MAJORITY WOULD WELCOME ISSUANCE OF AN ULTIMATUM
BY THEIR COUNTRY.

Tokio, Jan. 27.—The Japanese government has diplomatically intimated to Baron de Rosen, the Russian minister, that an early response is desired to Japan's recent note to Russia. It is calculated here that the Japanese note reached the Russian cabinet on the afternoon of Jan. 16 and it is felt that sufficient time has elapsed for its consideration and the preparation of a response. The Japanese government is conscious of the possible necessities of the military and naval situation, and is unwilling to permit evasions and delays which are designed to gain time. The future course of the Japanese government is a carefully guarded secret.

The length of time that Japan is prepared to await the pleasure of Russia is unknown. It seems probable that it has been determined to act decisively within a few days. The popular temper has long opposed further delay. While many objected to Japan's taking the initiative a majority would now welcome the issuance of a brief ultimatum, and a declaration of war if that should prove ineffective. Some outside opinion here inclines to the belief that the activity of the Japanese will be limited to the seizure of Korea, which enterprise it is thought Russia would not oppose. The Japanese government proceeds with absolute secrecy and the people of Japan are even not informed of the exact nature of the demands made on Russia.

The Jiji Shimpo says that Russia and Korea have agreed that 2,000 Russian soldiers be employed to guard the palace at Seoul, and that these troops will come from Port Arthur the middle of February.

TO SUPPRESS ROBBERS.

Detachment of Armed Japanese Sent to Pyongyang, Korea.

Seoul, Korea, Jan. 27.—One hundred armed Japanese have been sent to Pyongyang to insure the safety of the people, it having been reported that the houses of wealthy natives there were being looted by Korean soldiers and police disguised as robbers.

The report that Americans are acting in collusion with the members of the Russian legation at Seoul is entirely without foundation. The emperor has invited to the palace five French and Belgian civilians to act as a body guard, as he apparently fears Japanese intrusion. The Japanese have asked pointedly which side the emperor favors, as they wish to know if he is still favorable to the Russian cause.

TROOPS ON YALU RIVER.

Russians Mobilizing Eight Thousand Men There.

Port Arthur, Jan. 27.—It is reported that about 150 wagons loaded with army stores have left Lino Yang daily for the past four days for the Yalu river, where it is intended to concentrate 8,000 Port Arthur and Mukden troops. The authorities claim that the hostility of Japan compels mobilization on the Yalu, and that on this river Russia has heretofore carefully avoided alarming Korea by an appearance of threatening Japan.

PERISH FROM COLD.

Three Men Frozen to Death in Wisconsin.

Marquette, Wis., Jan. 27.—Three persons have perished from the cold in the vicinity of Marquette. Ernest Broutette, a woodsman, became lost in the woods near Wausauke and died as a result of the exposure. The frozen body of James Carroll of Harris, Mich., was found in a snowbank. He had been drinking. Fred Cadofski, a woodsman, was so badly frozen while riding back to his camp that he died. He had been drinking heavily.

FOUR PERSONS KILLED.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 27.—Four persons were killed by a Chicago and Northwestern passenger train last night at Carry, near Crystal Lake. The train struck the sleigh containing a minister, his wife and four children, instantly killing the father, mother and two children. The other two children are said to be fatally injured. The name of the family is not known here.

The Effective Remedy

WASHINGTON, IOWA, April 4, 1903.

I was troubled for over a year with so scanty a flow that it was virtually suppression. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me.

The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 13 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be.

My sister used it while expecting to become a mother and found that it made childbirth comparatively easy and after the child was born she found that it helped her to regain her strength.

FULLY CONVICTED

DEATH OF PROMOTER WHITAKER

Mr. Williams addresses the House for Nearly Two Hours.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Mr. Boutell (Rep., Ill.) addressed the house for nearly two hours Tuesday in a reply to statements made by Mr. Williams (Miss.), the minority leader, in his "stand pat" speech of a few days ago. Supt. Cook, of the Brainerd Lumber company, returned from Minneapolis this noon.

Rev. D. W. Lynch is reported much better and is now able to sit up. He will be out in a day or two.

Company F had drill last night which was followed by a pleasant social hour, during which the members and their lady friends enjoyed the dance.

The C. O. F. dancing party last night in Elk hall was a very pleasant affair and was greatly enjoyed by the large number of people who assembled.

W. J. Markham, of Bemidji, passed through the city today en route to the twin cities.

General Manager Gemmell, of the M. & L., returned from a business trip to the twin cities today.

Supt. Blanchard and Trainmaster C. E. McMullin, of the Superior division, were in the city for a short time this noon.

John Bye, Sr., was operated on at St. Joseph's hospital this morning for a cancer formation which had grown on the neck. Drs. Camp and Thabes performed the operation.

The Brainerd Ice company has about completed the work of putting up ice. They have finished harvesting the ice for themselves and are now completing contracts for others who have private ice houses.

It is not very pleasant to be victimized as a lady was yesterday. Upon dropping her pocketbook in front of the northeast fire hall she turned quickly to pick it up and found a boy running away with it and he refused to halt when ordered to do so.

The decorations of Gardner hall for the big Elk dancing party on Friday evening are said to be very elaborate. The committee states that they will be something out of the ordinary, very unique and pretty. The party is the talk of the city, socially, and it is anticipated that there will be a very large crowd present.

The prayer service of the church will be held on Thursday evening at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. Fannie Smith, corner 6th and Kingwood. Members are very cordially invited to be present. The study of the book of Philippians is proving of great interest to those attending. Bring your bible. An import and business session at the close.

The gentlemen of the First Presbyterian church will give a Boston supper in Walker hall tomorrow night, which will be followed by a sleigh ride. It is requested that there be not too many questions asked about what they dish up. The sleigh ride comes in well because the boys expect that the ladies will eat so much that they will have to be taken home. See?

The government has decided to build a new dam at the outlet of Cross Lake, which will be all concrete and will cost in the neighborhood of $125,000. THE GOSPEL OF EPICURUS.

President Hyde of Bowdoin College Lectures Merit of Its Teachings.

President Hyde of Bowdoin college addressed the Twentieth Century club at Boston the other day on "Epicureanism" and condemned the life wasted by low aim and luxurious living. He asked:

"Have we ever stopped to think how much there is in epicureanism which we not only might but which we ought to adopt? Epicureanism is essentially a gospel, not only a pleasure, but also of play, and most of our games are the means of relief work, which Epicurus sanctions. The man who goes on working without giving a considerable period of play is selling his great birthright of personality for a mess of commercial postage.

"On the other hand, the doctrine is not without its shortcomings, and the lectures to come will show us that there are sterner, broader, deeper standards of living than those of Epicurus. Without the background of devotion to domestic and natural life epicureanism is only a parasite on the complete individual and social life."

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

THE ELK MINSTRELS.

Tonight there will be another rehearsal of the chorus for the Elk minstrel at Elk hall and it is requested that there be a full attendance. It is thought after this rehearsal that all the songs will be committed and from now on the work will consist of tuning down or putting the finishing touches on. This will be given due attention this year and as there is considerable time yet before the date of the performance there is no reason why everything should not be in fine shape. The committee is working hard on the second part and they are able to announce that some of the best specialties in the country have been secured for this performance.

WARNER COMEDY COMPANY.

"Brother and Sister," a four act sensational comedy drama was presented at the Brainerd opera house last night by the Warner Comedy Co., to a fair-sized and as on the preceding evening, a very enthusiastic audience. The play is a good one of the kind, full of opportunities for dramatic work and to say the company did it justice would be expressing it mildly. Miss Cora Warner, in the role of Bess Fairfax displayed unusual dramatic ability and proved that she is capable of handling roles of this nature, in fact, the whole company without exceptions, did very well indeed. The specialties, of which there were many, were all new and pleased the audience immensely, especially the gallery, who insisted on encore after encore.

The bill for this evening is "Mercie's Marriage," a play which has never been put on here before, and Manager Warner promises everybody who attends a delightful performance. The specialties will all be changed and Miss Cora Warner will give her beautiful poses plastique with wonderful colored light effects. Remember the prices are only 10, 20 and 30 cents for tonight and all the rest of the week.

Every child will want to see "Foxy Grandpa," the comedy selected for the Saturday matinee, when children will be admitted for only 10c. Twelve beautiful dolls are to be given away at this performance.

"THE MAN FROM SWEDEN."

The Brooklyn Eagle says, in speaking of Knute Erickson in "The Man From Sweden," that will appear at the Brainerd theatre next Monday, Feb. 1: "It did not require an opera glass to see that the large audience at the Grand were more than pleased with Knute Erickson and his new play "The Man From Sweden." Knute is not only an artist in his line but a good singer and instrumentalist and the supporting company were very good and when the vast audience filed out there was a laugh in their hearts and a smile on their lips. Go and see "The Man From Sweden."

Messrs. H. and T. Wilson left this afternoon for Pine River on business.

Phillip O'Neill, gardner, of Fifth street south, says: "There was a dull steady ache across my loins especially when I became a little fatigued. When I stooped to lift or set out young plants I felt it acutely. The action of my kidneys was frequent, the secretions being highly colored, unnatural and annoying. This was no new condition for such symptoms had bothered me for years. My attention was attracted to Doan's Kidney Pills and thinking they might help me I procured them. From the time I commenced their use I suffered no further disturbance or annoyance from my kidney complaint, the kidneys gradually assumed a regular action and the backache ceased to bother me. CODY IS HELD FOR MURDER

Man Who Assaulted Chris Nelson Arrested and Taken to Aitkin

INJURED MAN DIED AT HOSPITAL

In this City and His Body is Taken to Aitkin—Inquest Will Be Held.

Chris Nelson, the man who was brutally and horribly beaten by a George Cody near McGregor a short time ago, died from the injuries and his remains have been taken back to Aitkin, where an inquest will be held tomorrow.

Nelson was brought down to Brainerd and taken to St. Joseph's hospital where he was given the best of treatment, but he died from the effects of his injuries.

It will be remembered that he and Cody were riding in a sleigh together and the story of Hansen as told to THE DISPATCH reporter, was to the effect that Cody attacked him without warning from the rear and pounded him unmercifully with a hammer.

The murdered man was but twenty years of age and had been over from Norway but a short time. Cody hailed from Ottawa, Can., a few months ago and after locating near McGregor married a squaw. Little is known of his past. He has been arrested and is being held at Aitkin charged with murder in the first degree.

In Memoriam.

North Star Lodge, No. 197, International Association of Machinists has suffered an irreparable loss through the death of Brother Con. Poppenberg, who at all times was a model member, showing in his fidelity to all the principles of our order, and also in his faithful and intelligent performance of all that he owed his employers.

That he was held in the highest esteem by his fellow shop-men was clearly evidenced by their spontaneous action in attendance at his funeral. The memory of his unassuming manner, his natural courtesy, and uniform excellent qualities will long remain with us, prompting us to a higher performance of our duties.

To his bereaved ones we extend our heart-felt sympathy in this, their time of extreme anguish, and trust that this memorial of our appreciation and affection, may tend to remove some of the sting of their sorrow.

J. H. DICKINSON,
W. SALMON,
F. E. LARSEN,
Committee.

Her Father Died.

The following regarding the death of the father of Mrs. A. E. Gustafson, of this city, is taken from the Kenmare, N. D., News:

"Ole Nelson passed away at Minot after a short illness. He was 73 years old and was born in Joland, Denmark, emigrating to this country in 1872, where he met and married Miss Marie Peterson in Chicago, where they lived until 1875, when they moved to Minnesota where they remained until 1900, when they came here and took up a claim southwest of town. Many of our readers will remember reading of Mrs. Nelson dying in 1901. Nine children blessed their union, which are as follows:

"Mrs. A. E. Gustafson, who lives at Brainerd, Minn., Mrs. P. J. Purdy, who lives at Devils Lake and Mrs. C. Webber, who lives at Minot, Miss Esther, Christina, Judith, Magdalena, Wm. and Joseph, who live here.

"Mr. Nelson was a hard working, and a strong and healthy man until last fall, he got his hand poisoned, from which he never recovered. He went to Minot a short time ago to stay with his daughter thinking he could have better care, but the seige was too much. He passed away last Saturday. The funeral took place from the Swedish Baptist church in which he was a firm believer, and the remains were laid to rest in Lake Vern cemetery by the side of his beloved wife."

Poet Riley on His Native Death.

Several years ago James Whitcomb Riley returned to his native town, Greenfield, Ind., for the purpose of giving a reading, the proceeds of which were for some charitable purpose. It had been many years since he had visited the old town, and as the affair had been well advertised people poured in from all sections of the county. Riley arrived on an evening train. The "old band" was at the station to meet him. The poet was put in a low necked carriage with a reception committee, and headed by the band, a procession was formed of citizens, and they paraded the business streets. A very old man leaned up against the Gymond House, a hotel of Riley's day, and as the carriage passed he squinted one eye and out of the opposite corner of his mouth said, "I've seen the time in this here burg when they would have got a brass band to git Jimmie Riley out of town."—Cleveland Leader.

OLD RESIDENT KILLED

Old Man of Royalton is Suddenly Killed by a Northern Pacific Flyer Yesterday Afternoon.

Peter Nelson, an aged cabinet maker residing with his daughter, Mrs. Myron Peterson at Royalton, was instantly killed by No. 2, the east-bound flyer at 2 o'clock this afternoon, says the St. Cloud Journal Press. The accident took place at the Centre street crossing within a stone's throw of the station and was one of those unfortunate accidents for which no one is responsible. The old man had been over to the west side of the town and crossed the siding in front of a freight train which was waiting for the flyer to pass. He was watching the freight engine and did not notice the approach of the passenger. Before he realized his danger the passenger engine struck him and he was hurled fully 150 feet killing him instantly. He was about 80 years of age.

NEW HOTEL TALK AGAIN

Some Talk That a Lease has been Secured of the N. P. Park Site for a New Structure to be Built Soon.

There is more hotel talk again. Several large hotels have been built "on paper" in the last two or three weeks, but there has nothing tangible developed so far. There is a rumor that the N. P. park has been leased and that a new modern hotel will be erected on the corner of Sixth and Front in the spring. Plans have been shown of this hotel, but it is thought that the rumor of the lease of the park is a "pipe." It is known that R. R. Wise is seriously contemplating building a hotel again and that his visit to St. Paul has been for the purpose of trying to secure an extension of the lease on the old Arlington site.

Vinol Worth $1,000 to A. J. Barker.

The Aged, and All Sons and Daughters of Aged People in Brainerd Should be Interested.

Mr. A. J. Barker, of 713 Locust street, Evansville, Ind., writes: "I believe there is no other medicine equal to Vinol for elderly people. I would not take $1,000 for the good it has done me. It makes strength for the aged as no other medicine seems to do, and invigorates the whole system. Vinol was first recommended to me for a bad cough, which I could not seem to get rid of. Vinol not only cured my cough, but it made me strong and well, and I enthusiastically indorse Vinol."

H. P. Dunn & Co., our well known druggists, when interviewed in regard to this matter, said: "We have never sold in our store such a wonderful vitalizer and strength maker for the aged as Vinol; it is nature's remedy for the sick, the weak and the aged."

"Vinol owes its virtue and great medicinal power to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated form all the active curative properties of cod liver oil, without a drop of the nauseating grease which characterizes old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions.

"Vinol at first acts upon the stomach toning it up, and enabling it to obtain from the food eaten the elements needed for rich, red blood, healthy body material and sound, steady nerves. In this way it repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline of the aged and never fails to replace weakness with strength."

"In the strongest manner we unhesitatingly indorse and guarantee Vinol to increase the appetite, cure stomach troubles, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, build up the run down, tired and debilitated, make the weak strong, cure chronic coughs, colds and build up the convalescent, or we will return to the purchaser every dollar paid for it." H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists.

This seemed a strong statement for reliable druggists to make, and we think every person in Brainerd ought to take advantage of their offer; as of course, they have a very wide knowledge of medicines, and what they will, or will not accomplish.—Editor.

Mrs. Gracia A. Vail Brings Action for Divorce Against William Vail in District Court.

CRUEL, INHUMAN TREATMENT

Was Charged in Complaint but Allegations were Not Substantiated in Court.

Late yesterday afternoon the divorce case of Mrs. Gracia A. Vail vs William Vail was finished, and Judge McClenahan denied the decree separating the plaintiff from her hubby.

The ground on which the divorce was sought was cruel and inhuman treatment, but the charges were not substantiated and Mrs. Vail will have to do the best she can for the time in trying to evade what she believes to be inhuman treatment on the part of her husband. The evidence adduced by the plaintiff tended to show that on several occasions defendant had threatened to lay hands on his wife and do her bodily harm, and that one time he made a pass at her a la Jefferies, but she was there with a Fitzsimmons duck and missed a wicked right swing to the nose.

Mr. and Mrs. Vail are both Salvation army people, but members of the corps did not mix in this unpleasant family quarrel; in fact it is understood that many of the members tried to patch up the difficulties between the twain, but they were unsuccessful.

Attorney E. W. Craue appeared for Mrs. Vail and Attorney T. C. Blewitt appeared for the defendant.

THE PACE SONG RECITAL

Given Last Evening Under the Auspices of Brainerd Ladies Musical Club Greatly Enjoyed by Large Audience.

The song recital given by Miss Florence Marion Pace at the First Congregational church last night was undoubtedly the best musical treat ever given in this city. The church was crowded and the audience was more than appreciative. Miss Pace was in excellent voice and her charming personality and graciousness of manner added to this seemed to thoroughly delight her listeners.

The varied program printed in yesterday's issue showed that Miss Pace does not confine herself to any one style of music. Her rendition of Tchaikowsky's sublime and grand "Farwell Ye Mountains" was as inspiring as Handel's "Three Green Bonnets" was simply and sweetly pleasing.

Miss Pace responded to three encores which agreeably lengthened a program of 14 numbers.

The Introduction et Polonaise Brillante, Op. 3, Chopin, for piano and violin by Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone and Mr. H. A. Lensrud, was indeed grand. They were given a very hearty encore and the audience showed their keen appreciation of the excellent rendition of this very difficult composition.

The chorus club gave two numbers of the program, and were very well received. Mrs. J. C. Atherton, who has trained the chorus in their work, was highly complimented by Miss Pace for the results she had obtained. As Miss Pace has the opportunity of singing with numerous organizations of this kind, this expression is much appreciated by the Ladies Musical club who are justly proud of their chorus.

Mrs. E. C. Griffith and Miss Gilkerson accompanied the Chorus in "Wynken Blynken, and Nod." Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone accompanied Miss Pace in her work.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

The Dispatch List of Eligibles in Matrimonial Lines will Prove a Very Valuable Guide.

WILLARD E. PALMER, for reasons known only to himself, has steadily refused to take unto himself a better two-thirds. He is an exemplary bachelor. He neither smokes, chews, drinks poor whisky nor uses profane language. He is steady and industrious. His only fault, if such it could be called, is his unbounded love for all the ladies. He is exceedingly fond of all kinds of entertainment, especially operas and dancing, and frequently he is seen at church. But he seldom appears twice with the same fair damsel. He will be hard to capture, but considering all things, girls, Mr. Palmer certainly would be a very desirable catch. Now do not let us lead you to think that our hero has no sentiment in his soul. In fact he is very sentimental, very often he falls deeply in love, but changes his mind, to another, and is still more deeply involved than before. Now do not be discouraged by these reports, but press your claim vigorously, keep up your courage, he will yield. Have your minister already engaged, and before he has time to see the next damsel have the knot tied, and you will have won a great victory indeed, and secured a husband with whom you must deal with firmness and judgment. Now in anticipation of the good results which we hope and believe will surely follow we extend our hearty congratulations to Mr. Palmer and the successful fair one.

"And, since thine Willard called thee wife Such seems the prospect of his life. A lovely path, un winding still, By gurgling brook and sloping hill. 'Tis true, that mortals cannot tell What waits them in the distant dell; But be it hap, or be it harm, We tread the pathway arm in arm."

H. P. Dunn & Co.'s Remarkable Way of Selling Mi-o-na, the Flesh Forming Food.

Just ask Druggists H. P. Dunn & Co. what they think of Mi-o-na. It will not take you long to ask them, but it will take them some time to tell you all the good things they know of this remarkable flesh forming food.

It is natural for people to doubt, but when Druggists H. P. Dunn & Co. frankly offers to buy back any empty boxes when Mi-o-na fails to restore health and increase the weight, and return the full amount of money paid, it silences the doubters and they cannot help but feel that Mi-o-na is an unusual and remarkable preparation. Used for a little while this flesh forming food will show that it actually furnishes real nourishment, regulates digestion and increases the weight.

Weigh yourself and then begin its use and the scales will soon show the good Mi-o-na is doing. It gives strength and tone to the digestive organs, makes rich, red blood and puts the whole system in proper physical condition. If it did not do what is claimed for it, Druggists H. P. Dunn & Co. could not afford to sell it the way they do, agreeing to refund the cost, 50c, in case it does not give complete satisfaction.

Every one who is thin, weak and out of health, should begin the use of Mi-o-na on these terms, for it costs absolutely nothing unless it makes you well.

CODY IS HELD FOR MURDER

Man Who Assaulted Chris Nelson Arrested and Taken to Aitkin

INJURED MAN DIED AT HOSPITAL

In this City and His Body is Taken to Aitkin—Inquest Will Be Held.

Chris Nelson, the man who was brutally and horribly beaten by a George Cody near McGregor a short time ago, died from the injuries and his remains have been taken back to Aitkin, where an inquest will be held tomorrow.

Nelson was brought down to Brainerd and taken to St. Joseph's hospital where he was given the best of treatment, but he died from the effects of his injuries.

It will be remembered that he and Cody were riding in a sleigh together and the story of Hansen as told to THE DISPATCH reporter, was to the effect that Cody attacked him without warning from the rear and pounded him unmercifully with a hammer.

The murdered man was but twenty years of age and had been over from Norway but a short time. Cody hailed from Ottawa, Can., a few months ago and after locating near McGregor married a squaw. Little is known of his past. He has been arrested and is being held at Aitkin charged with murder in the first degree.

In Memoriam.

North Star Lodge, No. 197, International Association of Machinists has suffered an irreparable loss through the death of Brother Con. Poppenberg, who at all times was a model member, showing it in his fidelity to all the principles of our order, and also in his faithful and intelligent performance of all that he owed his employers.

That he was held in the highest esteem by his fellow shop-men was clearly evidenced by their spontaneous action in attendance at his funeral. The memory of his unassuming manner, his natural courtesy, and uniform excellent qualities will long remain with us, prompting us to a higher performance of our duties.

To his bereaved ones we extend our heart-felt sympathy in this, their time of extreme anguish, and trust that this memorial of our appreciation and affection, may tend to remove some of the sting of their sorrow.

Her Father Died.

The following regarding the death of the father of Mrs. A. E. Gustafson, of this city, is taken from the Kenmare, N. D., News:

"Ole Nelson passed away at Minot after a short illness. He was 73 years old and was born in Joland, Denmark, emigrating to this country in 1872, where he met and married Miss Marie Peterson in Chicago, where they lived until 1875, when they moved to Minnesota where they remained until 1900, when they came here and took up a claim southwest of town. Many of our readers will remember reading of Mrs. Nelson dying in 1901. Nine children blessed their union, which are as follows:

"Mrs. A. E. Gustafson, who lives at Brainerd, Minn., Mrs. P. J. Purdy, who lives at Devils Lake and Mrs. C. Weber, who lives at Minot, Miss Esther, Christina, Judith, Magdalena, Wm. and Joseph, who live here.

"Mr. Nelson was a hard working, and a strong and healthy man until last fall, he got his hand poisoned, from which he never recovered. He went to Minot a short time ago to stay with his daughter thinking he could have better care, but the seige was too much. He passed away last Saturday. The funeral took place from the Swedish Baptist church in which he was a firm believer, and the remains were laid to rest in Lake Vern cemetery by the side of his beloved wife."

Poet Riley on His Native Heath.

Several years ago James Whitcomb Riley returned to his native town, Greenfield, Ind., for the purpose of giving a reading, the proceeds of which were for some charitable purpose. It had been many years since he had visited the old town, and as the affair had been well advertised people poured in from all sections of the county. Riley arrived on an evening train. The "old band" was at the station to meet him. The poet was put in a low necked carriage with a reception committee, and headed by the band, a procession was formed of citizens, and they paraded the business streets. A very old man leaped up against the Gymbond House, a hotel of Riley's day, and as the carriage passed he squinted one eye and out of the opposite corner of his mouth said, "I've seen the time in this here burg when they would have got a brass band to git Jimmie Riley out of town."—Cleveland Leader.

OLD RESIDENT KILLED

Old Man of Royalton is Suddenly Killed by a Northern Pacific Flyer Yesterday Afternoon.

Peter Nelson, an aged cabinet maker residing with his daughter, Mrs. Myron Peterson at Royalton, was instantly killed by No. 2, the east-bound flyer at 2 o'clock this afternoon, says the St. Cloud Journal-Press. The accident took place at the Centre street crossing within a stone's throw of the station and was one of those unfortunate accidents for which no one is responsible. The old man had been over to the west side of the town and crossed the siding in front of a freight train which was waiting for the flyer to pass. He was watching the freight engine and did not notice the approach of the passenger. Before he realized his danger the passenger engine struck him and he was hurled fully 150 feet killing him instantly. He was about 80 years of age.

RESCUERS IN DANGER

SIXTEEN MEN NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH WHILE SEARCHING FOR LOST MINERS.

RIGGING REFUSED TO WORK

THOSE IN THE MINE ALMOST SUCCUMB TO THE COLD BEFORE BEING RESCUED.

Pittsburg, Jan. 27.—Even the elements seem to be conspiring to prevent the work of rescue at the Harwick mine. Almost zero weather and a bitter, biting, cruel wind late in the afternoon swept down over the little valley where the mine is located and nearly added another list of dead to the long, black table already measured off. Not only was the work of searching for the dead and living, if any are still alive, rudely interrupted, but cold, ice and wind combined nearly cost the lives of sixteen more good men.

At 3 o'clock p. m. sixteen men went down into the shaft to do the work of bratticing, bolstoring, tunneling and removing the debris that has so far barred their progress into the workings where the men were at labor when the explosion came. Their shift was supposed to be of three hours only. Even at that it was a hard task. Even before the bucket reached the bottom they were drenched with water which the cold draught through the shaft soon turned to ice.

Shortly after they were let down, two at a time in the bucket, a temporary hoist that had been rigged up to bring up the debris and the dead was started down the shaft. Then came the snow and cold and the wind again, and once more efforts were made to reach the living men at the bottom of the shaft, but the wooden sides of the hoist, swollen by the water, stuck to the iron guide slide and then came hours of maneuvering to reach the bottom. The men below had no means of warmth and many of them were standing deep in water. Every effort was made to lower the cage and finally it was loosened and got within twelve feet of the bottom.

Aid Beyond Their Grasp.

A timber blown across the way by the explosion was in the path. The men were within easy reach of a rope, but their fingers, numbed and almost frozen by the cold, were unable to grasp the offered help.

It was 9 o'clock when the first three men of the party went down at 3 o'clock were brought to the surface. Not one of them was able to walk, being so numb by the cold.

Henry Beckert was one of the first men out of the cage. He was carried to the boiler house and after twenty minutes of warmth managed to straighten himself and say: "It was a frightful experience. The cold and hunger—and no good that we could do. We were too cold to work. There is apparently no one to rescue. We had a hard time to find many of the dead. A shroud of clothing here and another there, a jacket, a pair of overalls, but few bodies.

"When we left the bottom of the shaft there were twelve bodies lying there ready to be brought up. There are many others there and the bodies of many never will be found.

"The south main drift, in which we worked, gives little hope that many bodies recovered there will be recognizable.

"In the north main drift the way has been cleared for some distance, but we could not tell what was found there."

Just before 10 o'clock the last of the rescuers was brought to the surface and as the last man was helped to the cage, three more men went down to seek for the dead.

RELEASED ON BAIL.

Mayor Harrison and Other Officials Were Arrested.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—As a result of the verdict of the coroner's jury in the Iroquois theater disaster Mayor Harrison and the others held responsible have been arrested, arraigned in court and released on bail pending the action of the grand jury.

Stage Fireman William Sallers cannot be found.

NELSONS WILL NOT HANG.

Sentence of Condemned Minnesota Murderers Commuted.

St. Paul, Jan. 27.—Charles and Henry Nelson, under sentence of death for the murder of Henry Krier of Owatonna, will not go to the gallows. The board of pardons met during the morning and commuted their sentence to imprisonment for life.

The friends of the boys will now set out to secure, if possible, a new trial for the boys on the ground of new evidence secured.

The boys are sixteen and eighteen years of age.

Many Passengers Injured.

BRYAN TALKS IN NEW YORK.

Delivers Address as "Moral Issues" to Large Audience.

New York, Jan. 27.—Every seat in the Madison Square concert hall was taken last night when William J. Bryan began his speech on "Moral Issues."

In the audience there were many women, while the body of the hall was more than half filled with clergymen.

There was no presiding officer, Mr. Bryan being escorted to the platform, where he was greeted with prolonged applause.

Mr. Bryan said he was not a candidate for office; he was only a private citizen, and could prove by the editorial pages of nearly all leading dailies that he has excellent prospects of remaining a private citizen. He then humorously quoted from an interview to show that he renounced prominence by not advocating that all Democrats get together. Becoming serious, he said he wanted to know what Democrats were getting together for, whether to defend rights or to enter upon a course of pillage.

Mr. Bryan said he was opposed to the reorganization of the Democratic party because he wanted the party to define and stand for the rights of the people.

Mr. Bryan spoke vigorously against corruption in politics; he hoped the Kansas City platform would be adopted at St. Louis, and spoke against trusts and in favor of labor unions.

CHILDREN ON THE STAND.

Irene and Arthur Blydenburg Testify in Favor of Their Father.

Eldora, Ia., Jan. 27.—The efforts of the defense in the Blydenburg murder trial here Tuesday were in the main directed to an effort to prove that the home life of the Blydenburgs was pleasant.

The most important witnesses of the day were Irene and Arthur Blydenburg, the two children of the defendant.

Irene said she prepared the dinner on the day her mother was taken sick and her testimony was corroborated by that of her brother, Arthur Blydenburg said that his father bought "the rough on rats" to rid the premises of the numerous rodents which infested the house. He said "I and Blydenburg often embraced and kissed his wife.

The testimony of a number of neighbors was taken with a view to proving that the family relations of the Blydenburgs were pleasant.

FOUND GUILTY OF PERJURY.

Verdict Against Gerritt H. Albers of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 27.—Former Circuit Court Commissioner Gerritt H. Albers was found guilty by a jury in the superior court Tuesday of the charge of perjury committed on a former trial for bribery. Albers' counsel moved for a stay of sentence and the court granted a stay until Feb. 21. Albers subsequently was released on $5,000 bail.

At a former trial Albers, charged with an attempt to bribe Alderman Renihan, in connection with the Lake Michigan water scandal, was found not guilty. The perjury of which he has now been convicted was committed at that trial. The penalty for perjury is imprisonment in the state prison for a term not exceeding fifteen years.

WORK OF INSURGENTS.

American Property in Santo Domingo Destroyed.

San Domingo, Jan. 27.—It is learned here that the insurgents are destroying American property in Santo Domingo; consequently the United States cruiser Columbia has left for San Pedro Macoris to protect American interests there, the American consul at San Pedro having telegraphed Minister Powell advising him of the necessity of the cruiser's presence and saying also that other foreign interests were imperiled. The government is unable to afford the necessary protection. Certain American sugar estates at San Pedro are considered to be especially threatened, as they are some distance from the town and without protection.

The fire is supposed to have been caused by the fusing of electric wires and the loss will amount to several million lire.

TO SHOW CONSPIRACY.

Design of Government's Testimony in Postal Trial.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Testimony designed to show the existence of a conspiracy to defraud the government was introduced Tuesday by the prosecution in the postal trial. From the moment the proceedings began until court adjourned intense interest was manifested in the case. At the outset the question of admissibility of the declaration of D. B. Groff made to postoffice inspectors came up for further argument. The court finally decided that the statement was evidence against D. B. Groff, but not against the other defendants and that the jury would decide as to whether it was made voluntarily or not.

Postoffice Inspectors Rolfe, Thorp, McKee and Hayer, all of whom had interviewed the Groffs prior to their arrest, detailed the circumstances surrounding their conversation.

Diller B. Groff, in his own behalf, declared he was suffering from insomnia when he signed the statement. He testified that the inspectors had said to him that they wanted to arrest two men "and if you will give us the information that will convict them we will give you $13,000 and let you ride in the government band wagon and we will ride with flying colors."

It subsequently was brought out that the $13,000 referred to represented the amount the government owed the Groffs and payment for which had been held up.

WERE TIRED OF LIFE.

Iowa Couple Agree to Die Together in Oregon.

Pendleton, Ore., Jan. 27.—The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Brown of Reinbeck, Ia., were found in the hills south of town Tuesday.

Mrs. Brown had been shot in the breast and her throat cut from ear to ear with a razor. Brown had shot himself in the head and swallowed poison.

A note found said they were tired of life and had agreed to die together. Another letter written by Mrs. Brown and addressed to "Dear Brother," said:

"When this letter reaches you, I will be no more. I have found another man in Oregon I love better than my husband."

DISCUSSES PANAMA QUESTION.

Senator Stone Favors Investigation of Recent Revolt.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The time of the senate Tuesday was again divided between consideration of the Panama question and other subjects. There was only one speech on the canal and it was made by Mr. Stone of Missouri, who spoke to a resolution directing the senate committee on foreign relations to make an investigation into the Panama revolt. He contended that the circumstances indicated complicity on the part of the United States in the secession of Panama and urged that in the interest of the country's good name all the facts should be known.

Mr. Heyburn of Idaho made his first speech in the senate in support of a resolution introduced by himself prohibiting railroad companies from taking up land in a solid body in lieu of land in forest reservations.

A number of bills were passed, including one for a memorial bridge across the Potomac river at Washington.

NUMBER ON PAPER MONEY.

How to Tell Without Seeing the Figures if It Is Odd or Even.

"If any one comes up to you and wants to bet you that he can tell whether the number of any of Uncle Sam's paper money is odd or even by looking at that part of the bill on which the number does not appear, shun him as you would the plague," said a guest at the Hotel McKay the other night.

"Why? What is the joke?" asked another guest.

"Only this," replied the first: "I was out this afternoon with a number of men with whom I have business dealings. We ate lunch, and then one man wanted to bet me that he could call the even or odd on the number of any bill I had, the loser to pay for the lunch. I took a bill from my pocket, folded it so that the number did not show, and after he had looked at it he said, 'Given.'"

"It was even. Soon afterward I got stuck for the cigars the same way. After I had been done four or five times they explained to me that all of the bills marked 'A' and 'C' were odd, while those marked 'B' and 'D' were even. It cost about $6 to find it out, but I guess it was a good investment at that. It is the same on all bills. Be careful when attempting to do the work not to take the series letter in front of the number, but hunt for a small letter on the left hand side of the bill."—Duluth Herald.

SIXTEEN MEN NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH WHILE SEARCHING FOR LOST MINERS.
RIGGING REFUSED TO WORK
THOSE IN THE MINE ALMOST SUCCUMB TO THE COLD BEFORE BEING RESCUED.

Pittsburg, Jan. 27.—Even the elements seem to be conspiring to prevent the work of rescue at the Harwick mine. Almost zero weather and a bitter, biting, cruel wind late in the afternoon swept down over the little valley where the mine is located and nearly added another list of dead to the long, black table already measured off. Not only was the work of searching for the dead and living, if any are still alive, rudely interrupted, but cold, ice and wind combined nearly cost the lives of sixteen more good men.

At 3 o'clock p. m. sixteen men went down into the shaft to do the work of bratticing, bolsterring, tunneling and removing the debris that has so far barred their progress into the workings where the men were at labor when the explosion came. Their shift was supposed to be of three hours only. Even at that it was a hard task. Even before the bucket reached the bottom they were drenched with water which the cold draught through the shaft soon turned to ice. Shortly after they were let down, two at a time in the bucket, a temporary hoist that had been rigged up to bring up the debris and the dead was started down the shaft. Then came the snow and cold and the wind again, and once more efforts were made to reach the living men at the bottom of the shaft, but the wooden slider of the hoist, swollen by the water, stuck to the iron guide slide and then came hours of maneuvering to reach the bottom. The men below had no means of warmth and many of them were standing deep in water. Every effort was made to lower the cage and finally it was loosened and got within twelve feet of the bottom.

Aid Beyond Their Grasp.
A timber blown across the way by the explosion was in the path. The men were within easy reach of a rope, but their fingers, numbed and almost frozen by the cold, were unable to grasp the offered help. It was 9 o'clock when the first three men of the party went down at 3 o'clock were brought to the surface. Not one of them was able to walk, being so numb by the cold. Henry Beckert was one of the first men out of the cage. He was carried to the boiler house and after twenty minutes of warmth managed to straighten himself and say: "It was a frightful experience. The cold and hunger—and no good that we could do. We were too cold to work. There is apparently no one to rescue. We had a hard time to find many of the dead. A shroud of clothing here and another there, a jacket, a pair of overalls, but few bodies."

"When we left the bottom of the shaft there were twelve bodies lying there ready to be brought up. There are many others there and the bodies of many more will be found. "The south main drift, in which we worked, gives little hope that many bodies recovered there will be recognizable. "In the north main drift the way has been cleared for some distance, but we could not tell what was found there."

Just before 10 o'clock the last of the rescuers was brought to the surface and as the last man was helped to the cage, three more men went down to seek for the dead.

BRYAN TALKS IN NEW YORK.
Delivers Address as "Moral Issues" to Large Audience.
New York, Jan. 27.—Every seat in the Madison Square concert hall was taken last night when William J. Bryan began his speech on "Moral Issues." In the audience there were many women, while the body of the hall was more than half filled with clergymen. There was no presiding officer, Mr. Bryan being escorted to the platform, where he was greeted with prolonged applause. Mr. Bryan said he was not a candidate for office; he was only a private citizen, and could prove by the editorial pages of nearly all leading dailies that he has excellent prospects of remaining a private citizen. He then humorously quoted from an interview to show that he renounced prominence by not advocating that all Democrats get together. Becoming serious, he said he wanted to know what Democrats were getting together for, whether to defend rights or to enter upon a course of pillage. Mr. Bryan said he was opposed to the reorganization of the Democratic party because he wanted the party to define and stand for the rights of the people. Mr. Bryan spoke vigorously against corruption in politics; he hoped the Kansas City platform would be adopted at St. Louis, and spoke against trusts and in favor of labor unions.

CHILDREN ON THE STAND.
Irene and Arthur Blydenburg Testify in Favor of Their Father.
Eldora, Ia., Jan. 27.—The efforts of the defense in the Blydenburg murder trial here Tuesday were in the main directed to an effort to prove that the home life of the Blydenburgs was pleasant. The most important witnesses of the day were Irene and Arthur Blydenburg, the two children of the defendant. Irene said she prepared the dinner on the day her mother was taken sick and her testimony was corroborated by that of her brother, Arthur. Blydenburg said that his father bought "the rough on rats" to rid the premises of the numerous rodents which infested the house. He said that Blydenburg often embraced and kissed his wife. The testimony of a number of neighbors was taken with a view to proving that the family relations of the Blydenburgs were pleasant.

FOUND GUILTY OF PERJURY.
Verdict Against Gerritt H. Albers of Grand Rapids, Mich.
Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 27.—Former Circuit Court Commissioner Gerritt H. Albers was found guilty by a jury in the superior court Tuesday of the charge of perjury committed on a former trial for bribery. Albers' counsel moved for a stay of sentence and the court granted a stay until Feb. 21. Albers subsequently was released on $3,000 bail. At a former trial Albers, charged with an attempt to bribe Alderman Renihan, in connection with the Lake Michigan water scandal, was found not guilty. The perjury of which he has now been convicted was committed at that trial. The penalty for perjury is imprisonment in the state prison for a term not exceeding fifteen years.

WORK OF INSURGENTS.
American Property in Santo Domingo Destroyed.
San Domingo, Jan. 27.—It is learned here that the insurgents are destroying American property in Santo Domingo; consequently the United States cruiser Columbia has left for San Pedro Macoris to protect American interests there, the American consul at San Pedro having telegraphed Minister Powell advising him of the necessity of the cruiser's presence and saying also that other foreign interests were imperilled. The government is unable to afford the necessary protection. Certain American sugar estates at San Pedro are considered to be especially threatened, as they are some distance from the town and without protection.

MANY VOLUMES BURNED.
Famous Italian Library Partially Destroyed by Fire.
Turin, Italy, Jan. 27.—The University library has been partially destroyed by fire. It is roughly estimated that over 100,000 volumes were burned, as well as many rare manuscripts. The University library was considered the most famous in Italy, the others being the Vatican library, the Marciani library at Venice and the one at Monte Cassino. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the fusing of electric wires and the loss will amount to several million lire.

TO SHOW CONSPIRACY.
Design of Government's Testimony in Postal Trial.
Washington, Jan. 27.—Testimony designed to show the existence of a conspiracy to defraud the government was introduced Tuesday by the prosecution in the postal trial. From the moment the proceedings began until court adjourned intense interest was manifested in the case. At the outset the question of admissibility of the declaration of D. B. Groff made to postoffice inspectors came up for further argument. The court finally decided that the statement was evidence against D. B. Groff, but not against the other defendants and that the jury would decide as to whether it was made voluntarily or not. Postoffice Inspectors Rolfe, Thorp, McKee and Hayer, all of whom had interviewed the Groffs prior to their arrest, detailed the circumstances surrounding their conversation. Diller B. Groff, in his own behalf, declared he was suffering from insomnia when he signed the statement. He testified that the inspectors had said to him that they wanted to arrest two men "and if you will give us the information that will convict them we will give you $13,000 and let you ride in the government band wagon and we will ride with flying colors." It subsequently was brought out that the $13,000 referred to represented the amount the government owed the Groffs and payment for which had been held up.

WERE TIRED OF LIFE.
Iowa Couple Agree to Die Together in Oregon.
Pendleton, Ore., Jan. 27.—The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Brown of Reinbeck, Ia., were found in the hills south of town Tuesday. Mrs. Brown had been shot in the breast and her throat cut from ear to ear with a razor. Brown had shot himself in the head and swallowed poison. A note found said they were tired of life and had agreed to die together. Another letter written by Mrs. Brown and addressed to "Dear Brother," said: "When this letter reaches you, I will be no more. I have found another man in Oregon I love better than my husband."

Chicago Brewer Suicides.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.
Senator Hanna, who is ill with the grippe, is very much better. Fire totally destroyed the Ryan high school building at Appleton, Wis. Loss $50,000. Arguments in the Hopper-Dunsmuir will case at Victoria, B. C., have ended and Judge Drake has reserved his decision. The national guard association has re-elected General Charles Dick president and selected St. Paul as the next place of meeting. The bank in the village of Mar dock, Neb., was robbed of $1,200 early Tuesday. The sheriff is hunting the robbers with bloodhounds. President John Mitchell, Vice President Lewis and Secretary-Treasurer Wilson have all been re-elected by the United Mine Workers of America. Judge Robert Lowry, former member of congress from the Twelfth Indiana district, died Wednesday morning at his home in Fort Wayne, aged eighty years. The British steamer Manhattan, which left New Orleans Jan. 16, bound for Bremen, entered the port of Charleston, S. C., Tuesday night with her cargo of cotton and grain on fire.

DISCUSSES PANAMA QUESTION.
Senator Stone Favors Investigation of Recent Revolt.
Washington, Jan. 27.—The time of the senate Tuesday was again divided between consideration of the Panama question and other subjects. There was only one speech on the canal and it was made by Mr. Stone of Missouri, who spoke to a resolution directing the senate committee on foreign relations to make an investigation into the Panama revolt. He contended that the circumstances indicated complicity on the part of the United States in the secession of Panama and urged that in the interest of the country's good name all the facts should be known. Mr. Heyburn of Idaho made his first speech in the senate in support of a resolution introduced by himself prohibiting railroad companies from taking up land in a solid body in lieu of land in forest reservations. A number of bills were passed, including one for a memorial bridge across the Potomac river at Washington.

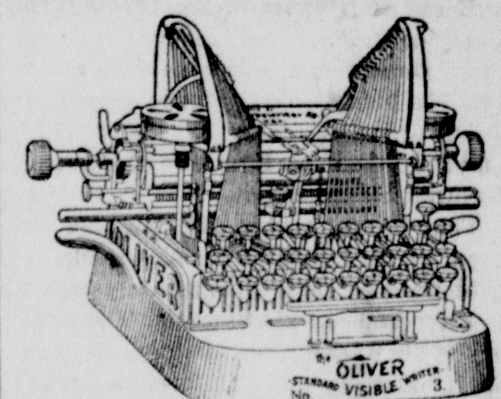

NUMBER ON PAPER MONEY.
How to Tell Without Seeing the Figures if It is Odd or Even.
"If any one comes up to you and wants to bet you that he can tell whether the number of any of Uncle Sam's paper money is odd or even by looking at that part of the bill on which the number does not appear, shun him as you would the plague," said a guest at the Hotel McKay the other night. "Why? What is the joke?" asked another guest. "Only this," replied the first: "I was out this afternoon with a number of men with whom I have business dealings. We ate lunch, and then one man wanted to bet me that he could call the even or odd on the number of any bill I had, the loser to pay for the lunch. I took a bill from my pocket, folded it so that the number did not show, and after he had looked at it he said, 'Even.' "It was even. Soon afterward I got stuck for the cigars the same way. After I had been done four or five times they explained to me that all of the bills marked 'A' and 'C' were odd, while those marked 'B' and 'D' were even. It cost about $6 to find it out, but I guess it was a good investment at that. It is the same on all bills. Be careful when attempting to do the work not to take the series letter in front of the number, but hunt for a small letter on the left hand side of the bill."—Duluth Herald.

London Tradesmen's Society spies.
"Guinea pig" directors being almost extinct because of the stagnation of company promoting, fashionable out of works are now acting as society spies for London tradesmen, says the New York World. They tell when a man or woman has won or lost considerable at bridge, and the tradesman acts accordingly. The spy also gets to know when a wife is exhausting her husband's patience, and she finds her credit curtailed at the shops. A variety of other information is also conveyed to the tradesmen, who recompense spies liberally.
